Getting Ready is an evidence-based family engagement approach that promotes positive outcomes for children, families and the parent-educator partnership. Each month, we'll highlight positive outcomes and participants that benefitted from the Getting Ready Approach. Learn more at: gettingready.unl.edu.

Spotlight: Community Childcare Educators

During 2023, the Preschool Expansion Grant (PDG) enabled Getting Ready to intentionally partner with Community Childcare Providers through a partnership with Southeast Early Learning Connection. This issue will spotlight community childcare educators who were involved in the training and coaching. To review the report of outcomes for all participants, click the link below.

VIEW REPORT

100%

of community childcare educators reported improvements in their partnerships with families after Getting Ready.

Before Getting Ready

of educators felt prepared to interact with parents.

After Getting Ready

of educators felt prepared to interact with parents.

After Getting Ready, educators and families are visiting more often about:

Children's goals

NEBRASKA CENTER FOR RESEARCH ON CHILDREN, YOUTH, FAMILIES & SCHOOLS

Administration for Children and Families, Office of Early Childhood; Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services; Nebraska Department of Education; and Nebraska Children and Families Foundation, following grant requirements of 70% federal funding with 30% match from state and private resources. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Office of Child Care, the Administration for Children and Families, or the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.